

Free Tax Preparation Assistance & Filing is Here!

VITA: Volunteer Income Tax Assistance. The IRS offers free tax help to people who generally make $54,000 or less, persons with disabilities and limited English speaking taxpayers who need assistance in preparing their own tax returns. IRS certified volunteers provide free basic income tax return preparation with electronic filing to qualified individuals. In addition to VITA, the Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) program offers free tax help for all taxpayers, particularly those who are 60 years of age and older, specializing in questions about pensions and retirement-related issues unique to seniors. The IRS-certified volunteers who provide tax counseling are often retired individuals associated with non-profit organizations that receive grants from the IRS.

Mental Toughness: How to Stick to a Plan

Lifestyle changes like eating healthier, exercising, making time for yourself or spending less are a process that take time and require support. Once you're ready to make a change, the difficult part is committing and following through. Here are five tips to help you make lasting, positive lifestyle and behavior changes:

Make a plan that will stick. Your plan is a map to guide you on this journey of change. When making your plan, be specific. Write everything down, and ask yourself if you're confident that these activities and goals are realistic for you. If not, start with smaller steps. Post your plan where you'll often see it.

Start small. After you've identified realistic short-term and long-term goals, break down your goals into small, manageable steps that are specifically defined and can be measured.

Change one behavior at a time. To improve your success, focus on one goal or change at a time. As new healthy behaviors become a habit, try to add another goal that works toward the overall change you're striving for.

Involve a buddy. Whether it be a friend, co-worker or family member, someone else on your journey will keep you motivated and accountable.

Ask for support. Accepting help from those who are willing strengthens your resilience and commitment. If you feel overwhelmed or unable to meet your goals, consider seeking help from your Success Coach. They can help you in making a plan or when you hit bumps along the way. Source: American Psychological Association
