

Meet Success Coach, Christie Swick!

Christie Swick, Success Coach, has been assisting employees of the West Michigan Employer Resource Network® (ERN®) since 2016. She is available at member companies to confidentially help you with any issue causing stress including finances, family, transportation, childcare, co-workers, training and more.

What are ERNs?

There are over 30 existing and developing ERNs nationally providing member employees free access to social services and training programs. ERNs bring together the best resources to help you improve your employment skills, overcome personal barriers and prepare you for advancement.

Her extensive background. Christie has a Bachelor's degree in Psychology from Aquinas College and a Master's degree in Social Work from Grand Valley

Your Success Coach can assist you with:

- ◆ evaluating issues
- ◆ determining goals
- ◆ applying for public assistance
- ◆ utilizing resources
- ◆ locating tools
- ◆ offering guidance

Walk-in Welcome

- ◆ Call, email or text for appointments
- ◆ Solve work and home challenges
- ◆ Move on to training and long term goals

State University. She worked as a caseworker for the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) for over 20 years. This experience has made her especially knowledgeable in assisting employees with applying for public assistance programs. Employees appreciate blend of her expertise and her kindness.

Her favorite part of the job. "I really enjoy helping so many people by assisting them in making positive, lasting change in their lives," said Christie.

Why this program is different. "Often employee programs have a set list of issues in which they address, but an ERN Success Coach can help with just about any area of your life. We also assist with applying for DHHS benefits.

If we don't have a needed resource already, we will find it or help create it." Take a positive step forward. Christie is quick to respond by phone, text and email. What are your challenges? What are your dreams?
